The Parents-Teachers Meeting for the academic year 2022-2023 was held on Saturday, 11th March 2023, at St. Joseph's College of Arts & Science, Cuddalore-1. The meeting aimed to foster collaboration between parents and faculty to improve the academic and personal growth of the students

Mrs. C. Mary Shakkina, Class Mentor, Engages in a Discussion with Parents on Student Progress and Development.

The meeting began with an address by the Principal, who emphasized the importance of parent-teacher interaction in the holistic development of students. Parents then met with mentors and subject faculty for a detailed review of their child's academic progress. Faculty members highlighted the students' strengths and areas for improvement, with a special emphasis on individual subjects. Attendance was a prominent issue of the meeting, with faculty members emphasizing its importance to academic performance.

Parents were also advised of the significance of regular class attendance and its impact on performance. Consolidated marks from the first Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) and attendance data were presented, allowing parents and teachers to work together on improvement measures. Parents provided feedback on the curriculum, student support systems, and extra-curricular activities. The faculty encouraged parents to remain actively involved in their children's academic journey, particularly in monitoring their internal assessment performance. Feedback collected from parents through MS Forms showed that they greatly appreciated the college's efforts in guiding students toward their academic and career goals.

Parents expressed their gratitude for the college's steadfast support in fostering their children's professional and personal development. The meeting concluded with a unanimous vote of thanks, as parents and faculty committed to working together to ensure optimal outcomes for the students. Totally, 548 students participated in this meeting.

Outcomes of the Parent-Teachers Meeting:

- Parents and mentors engaged in comprehensive discussions on student performance, followed by subject-specific feedback from faculty to identify academic strengths and weaknesses.
- Attendance was a key area of focus, with an emphasis on its direct influence on student success.
- Conversations focused on students' academic advancement, conduct, and potential areas for enhancement, accompanied by tailored strategies for improvement.
- Reports on CIA marks and attendance were shared with parents, initiating discussions regarding essential measures for academic enhancement.
- The faculty underscored the significance of internal assessments and motivated students to elevate their performance.

REPORT ON THE PARENTS-TEACHERS-STUDENTS MEETING

Department: PG Department of Computer Applications

Date: 11-03-2023

On March 11, 2023, the PG Department of Computer Applications organized a comprehensive Parent-Teacher Meeting designed to enhance communication between educators and parents. This initiative provided a vital platform for discussing students' academic progress and overall development. The event was carefully structured into two sessions: the first catered to Shift I UG and PG students from 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM, while the second focused on Shift II UG students from 1:30 PM to 4:00 PM. The meeting attracted a notable turnout, with approximately 583 students and their parents in attendance.

Mentor Briefing about the Students Progression to the parents

Meeting Objectives and Structure

The main goals of the meeting included fostering collaboration between faculty and parents, examining various aspects of student development, and gathering feedback on students' educational experiences. Class in-charges facilitated open discussions with parents on several key topics. Educators highlighted individual students' strengths and weaknesses across subjects, addressing issues related to classroom behavior, discipline, and responsible mobile device usage.

Focus on Extracurricular Engagement

The importance of extracurricular involvement was emphasized, with detailed explanations of the available activities and their benefits for student development. Additionally, teachers provided updates on students' semester performance, offering insights into areas requiring improvement as well as those where students excelled. Information was also disseminated regarding ongoing placement initiatives and available resources for career development.

Parent Participation and Suggestions

Parents actively participated in the discussions, offering constructive feedback regarding their children's educational experiences. Significant suggestions included improving placement facilities to enhance job opportunities, establishing a spoken English training program for first-year students, providing dedicated coaching classes for the TANCET examination, and introducing specialized training programs to prepare students for advanced education and further studies.

Conclusion and Future Directions

The meeting concluded on a positive note, with parents expressing their satisfaction with the educational support provided at St. Joseph's College. They conveyed their appreciation for the institution's commitment to creating a nurturing learning environment. The feedback collected during this meeting will be instrumental in shaping future initiatives aimed at enhancing both the academic and personal development of students.
