TITLE: AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON "ANTI RAGGING"

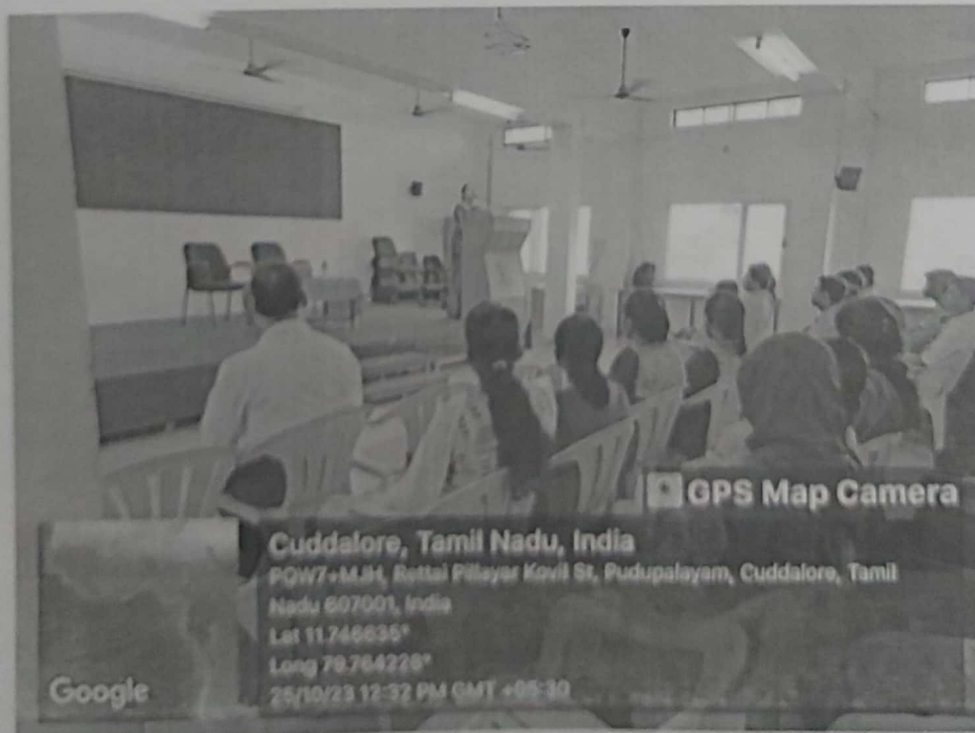

VENUE: LIBRARY EXTENSION HALL

DATE: 25-10-2023

TIME: 11.30 A.M to 1.00 P.M

The Anti-Ragging Committee of the college successfully organized an awareness program on anti-ragging for first-year UG and PG students in both Shift I and Shift II. The event featured Mrs. K. Selva Priya, an Advocate and Former Public Prosecutor from the Mahila Court in Cuddalore, as the resource person.

Dr. R. Vidya, Coordinator of the Anti-Ragging Committee and Assistant Professor in the PG and Research Department of Computer Science, delivered the welcome address. Following her, Dr. M. Arumai Selvam, the Principal and Head of the Computer Science Department, provided the presidential address, emphasizing the importance of the topic.

Chief guest addressing the gathering

The event was skilfully managed by a third-year undergraduate student who served as the MC. Mrs. K. Selva Priya offered vital advice on responsible mobile phone usage, focusing on interacting safely with strangers. She discussed privacy settings, the importance of safeguarding personal information, and strategies for handling unfamiliar or unsafe online situations.

The Chief Guest also highlighted relevant legislation pertaining to ragging and gender-related issues. By sharing real cases and judicial outcomes, she aimed to provide practical insights into legal frameworks that can address these challenges, fostering both awareness and empowerment among the students.

Audience attending the programme

The program concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by a second-year PG female student, marking a successful event dedicated to equipping students with essential knowledge and skills for their safety on campus and in the digital realm.

Activity-1

TITLE: LECAL PROTECTION AGAINST RAGGING

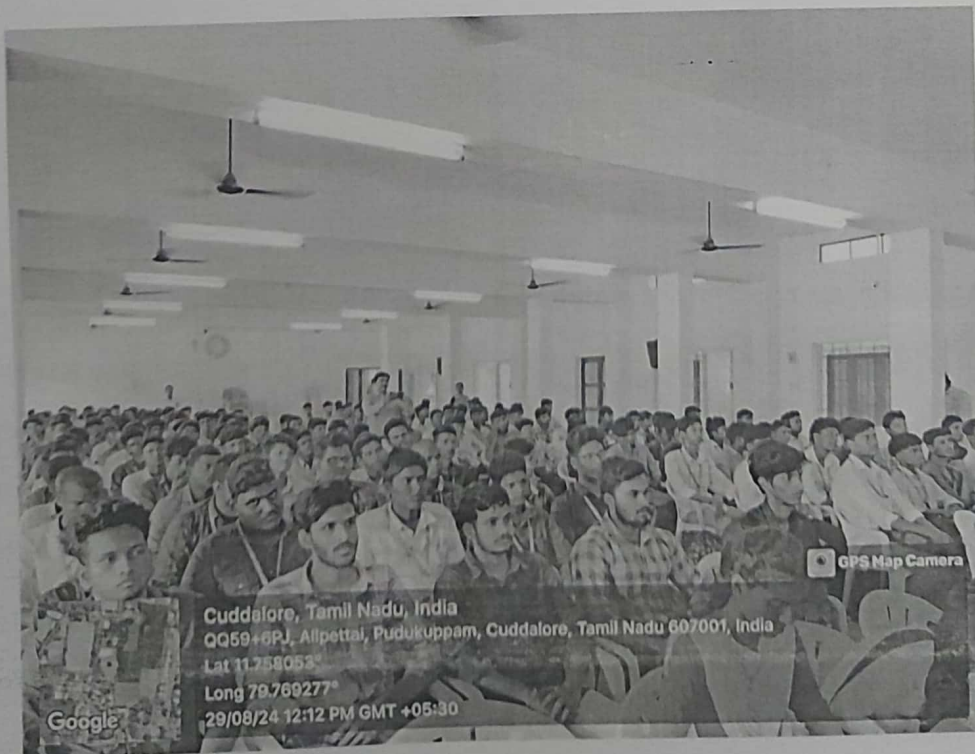

VENUE: LIBRARY EXTENSION HALL

DATE: 29-08-2024

TIME: 11.30 A.M to 1.00 P.M

The Anti-Ragging Committee organized a program titled "Legal Protection Against Ragging" on August 29, 2024, at the library extension hall. The event featured Mrs. J. Deepa, an Inspector of Police, as the resource person. She was warmly welcomed by our Principal, Dr. M. Arumai Selvam.

The Vice Principal, Dr. J. Jon Arockiaraj, felicitated Mrs. Deepa, expressing gratitude for her valuable presence and contributions.

Students attending the awareness programme

In her address, Ms. Deepa provided insightful and motivational guidance to the undergraduate first-year and postgraduate students. She emphasized the importance of fostering strong, healthy friendships built on trust, respect, and positive influence, highlighting how these connections can provide emotional support and enhance personal growth throughout their academic journey.

She passionately discussed the role of family, urging students to respect and appreciate their parents for their sacrifices. Ms. Deepa stressed that strong family support is vital for achieving success and that maintaining these connections helps students remain grounded and focused.

Internal Anti Ragging Committee members with the Resource person

Furthermore, she advised students to approach their studies with dedication and commitment. She underscored that hard work, perseverance, and sincerity are essential for both academic and personal success. Ms. Deepa encouraged students to seize their time in college as a unique opportunity to acquire knowledge, skills, and values that will shape their futures. She urged them to stay curious and strive for excellence in all their endeavours.

In conclusion, Dr. R. Vidya, the coordinator, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude for the motivational speech and appreciating the students for their attentive participation in the program.

Activity-2

TITLE: LEGAL PROTECTION AGAINST RAGGING

VENUE: LIBRARY EXTENSION HALL

DATE: 18-09-2024

TIME: 2.00 P.M to 3.30 P.M

On September 18, 2024, Rev. Father Secretary Dr. M. Swaminathan welcomed Inspector of Police J. Deepa for an important session on combating ragging, emphasizing students' strength in facing and reporting such incidents. Inspector Deepa highlighted the legal protections available and introduced the Kavalan App as a vital safety tool for students, urging everyone to install it for their protection.

Resource person addressing the gathering

The session, held at the Library Extension Hall, saw active participation from undergraduate and postgraduate girls. Principal Dr. M. Arumai Selvam and Vice Principal Dr. J. Jon Arockiaraj encouraged the students to engage with anti-ragging activities and foster a respectful academic environment.

Inspector Deepa stressed the significance of vigilance and peer support in reporting ragging, outlining the legal consequences for offenders and reaffirming the institution's zero-tolerance policy. The interactive nature of the session empowered students with knowledge about their rights and the steps to take if they faced violations.

The internal anti ragging committee members with Resource person

The event concluded with a vote of thanks from Dr. R. Vidya, the committee coordinator, who appreciated the collaborative efforts to raise awareness about this critical issue.
