7.1.8 INCLUSIVE CAMPUS – FLAG HOISTING AND READING OF SCRIPTURES

Every Monday during the college assembly as well as during special occasions, students gather together to listen to reading from the sacred scriptures of Hinduism, Islam and Christianity. This ensures a sense of belonging as well as improve the cultural understanding of the students.

During days where there is no assembly, a reading from any one of the three sacred scripture is read over the public announcement system on a rotation basis.

At the heart of the student's assembly is the Indian National Flag and the choral singing of the National Anthem that unites the students in the spirit of unity.
